

The Journal for Cultural and Religious Theory (JCRT)

. |

Bluebird: Deliberate Creation of Multiple Personality by Psychiatrists

Martin H Katchen

Katchen - Book Profile: Psychiatric Abuse and the Intelligence Community - JCRT 2.3

Book Profile: Psychiatric Abuse and the Intelligence Community

Colin Ross, Bluebird: Deliberate Creation of Multiple Personality By Psychiatrists. Richardson, TX: Manitou Communications, Inc., 2000. 406 pages. ISBN: 0970452519.

Cheryl Hersha and Lynn Hersha, with Dale Griffis and Ted Schwartz. Secret Weapons: Two Sisters' Terrifying True Story of Spies and Sabotage. Far Hills, NJ: New Horizons Press, 2001. 434 pages. ISBN: 0882821962.

Martin Katchen
Los Angeles, California

Since Victor Marchetti and John Marks first published The CIA and The Cult of Intelligence in 1980, the American public has been treated to a series of exposes that have been highly critical of CIA and military operations. These allegations against the CIA resulted in formation of the House Select Committee on Intelligence in 1978, which held hearings that uncovered evidence that the CIA in particular had engaged in experiments in "mind control" by using unwitting US citizens and foreign nationals.

> "The change is like a re-enlistment in an army she never willingly joined. In a very real w

Martin Katchen received his Ph.D. in Religious Studies from the University of Sydney, where he studied factors of hypnotisability and dissociative identity disorder in former members of high demand religious movements, including Jehovah's Witnesses. He is a contributor to the volume Out of Darkness, ed. David Sakheim and Susan Levine (Lexington Books, 1992). He currently teaches in Southern California.

' 2001 Martin Katchen. All rights reserved.
Updated 07/28/21.
jcrt.org/archives/02.3/katchen
