

The Journal for Cultural and Religious Theory (JCRT)

2.3 |

Blessed Are They Who Mourn: Roman Catholic Sex/Gender Ideology After Vatican II

Marian Ronan

Read this article on JCRT

<https://jcrt.org/archives/02.3/ronan/>

© 2001 Marian Ronan.

<https://jcrt.org/archives/02.3/ronan/>

Published by Whitestone Publications. ISSN 1530-5228. Licensed under CC BY 4.0.

Ronan - Blessed Are They Who Mourn - JCRT 2.3
Marian Ronan
American Baptist Seminary of the West

Introduction

One widely accepted reading of twentieth century Roman Catholicism is that the Catholic Church became part of the modern world as a result of the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965). And certainly, some of the most widely hailed conciliar documents' "The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World,"^[^1] for example, and "The Declaration on Religious Freedom"^[^2] 'reflect a new Catholic opening toward modern values.

The Discourses of Mourning

Catholicism and Difference

Catholic Sex/Gender Ideology

Ecclesial Displacements

Conclusion

Notes

Marian Ronan is Assistant Professor of Contemporary Theology and Religion at the American Baptist Seminary of the West in Berkeley, CA, and president of the (Roman Catholic) Women's Ordination Conference.

Copyright © held by the author(s). 2001 Marian Ronan. All rights reserved.
Updated 07/28/21.
jcrt.org/archives/02.3/ronan
