Like many in America, I was dumbfounded by the “events” of September 11. Add horrified and transfixed as well. A “grotesque obscenity” I heard one British newscaster say. So how do we make sense of such senselessness? How do we comprehend the incomprehensible?

David Hale is associate book review editor for the Journal for Cultural and Religious Theory. He is a Ph.D. candidate in the Study of Religion at the University of Denver/Iliff School of Theology. He is also a regular columnist on religion for The Aspen Times in Aspen, Colorado.
