

The Journal for Cultural and Religious Theory (JCRT)

13.1 | winter

From Colonialism to Neo-Liberal Capitalism: Latino/a Immigrants in the U.S. and the New Biopolitics.

Manuel A. VÁSquez

Abstract

The article explores the emergence of a transnational regime of subjectivation and population management based from Michel Foucault's work on governmentality and biopolitics and Giorgio Agamben's on normalization of the state of exception.

Keywords: united-states, biopolitics-philosophy, 1942, agamben, giorgio, immigrants